

Among the Churches

EBENEZER CHURCH.

The warm weather did not affect the crowd at Ebenezer Sunday. The usual audience greeted the pastor, Dr. W. T. Osborne, and listened to an inspiring gospel sermon. Eight persons united with the church. The membership of Ebenezer has outgrown the church edifice and the members are working hard and steady, raising money to pay off the last indebtedness and make a larger place for worship. A partial report was made Tuesday evening by the Evens, Mrs. Lottie Sowell, Captain—Nine hundred seven dollars and ninety-seven cents. The Odds, Miss Lovie Thatcher, ran ahead, reporting twelve hundred thirty-seven dollars and sixty cents. Miss Thatcher wears the blue ribbon and the Odds are rejoicing in their overwhelming success. Outside of the reports by these captains the Art Club gave $60, the United-We-Stand $50, The Willing Workers $50, The Deaconsess $10, the A. C. E. League $10. The United-We-Stand Club also gave $50 to Miss Thatcher, the captain of the Odds, and vice president of the Club, making $100 given by the U. W. S. Club in the Rally. This Club was organized by Mrs. Osborne and under the leadership of its first president, Mrs. Ella Shurman, another present president, Mrs. Ada Davis, has done a great work ever since its organization over one year ago. Class No.

8, Brother Tyler Jackson, leader, stands at the head in class reports, $102.08; Class No. 12, Brother Gilliam, leader, is next; Class No. 14, Brother Rather, leader, comes No. 3, and Class No. 5, Brother Givens, leader, is No. 4; Class No. 19, Brother William Richardson, leader, is No. 5. Only a partial report has been made; the classes are still gathering in their reports. Class No. 6, Brother Flood, leader, is banner this week. Brother Flood is a new member, having united Sunday, coming from Allen Chapel with the reputation of a great worker. He was given a class and led in his first report. The Sunday School, under the efficient superintendent, Mrs. Anna Roberts, is holding its own. So is the A. C. E. League under the leadership of Mrs. Olivia Moore, the tireless, energetic president. Rev. Osborne is still inconvenienced by rheumatism and unable to wear his shoes. The members and friends have been invited to visit Adkins Brothers' New Funeral Home at 2122 Vine street Sunday immediately after morning services until 10:30 p. m.

VINE ST. BAPTIST CHURCH.

All services were well attended with six additions. There were a great many visitors as usual. The Reception Committee introduced 585 during the past six months instead of 189, that was a great mark. We wish them continued success in the future. Mr.

Ned Carter, President, Mrs. Ella Lawson, Sec. Mrs. S. A. Carter will spend three or four months in Chicago visiting her son. We wish for a good and glorious time. Miss Irma Frazier, a graduate of the Lawrence University, is in our city visiting her cousin, Mrs. Cornelia Hollis. We welcome her to our city and wish her a pleasant stay. Rev. Lane, pastor of St. Paul Baptist Church, baptized in the afternoon. Six were immersed. A good meeting was enjoyed by all. We were indeed sorry to learn of the death of little George Jackson. We extend to the family our deepest sympathies and wish for them a brighter day.

FRIENDSHIP BAPTIST CHURCH.

17th and Tracy. All services were well attended. There were a great many strangers out as usual. We welcome them to our church and Sunday school. Our pastor was not feeling so well Sunday and Rev. White preached a grand and noble sermon. At 3 o'clock the B. Y. P. U. held their rally. All present enjoyed the discourse. The pastor, Rev. S. C. Doyle and R. O. Johnson, president of the B. Y. P. U., will leave Sunday night to attend the National B. Y. P. U. Congress. Sunday will be Rally day to raise money to repair our church. Come out and help us.

REV. G. E. HORSEY, M. D.

At the earnest solicitation of many former patrons and friends, Dr. G. E. Horsey, pastor of Ward Chapel, has again consented to actively resume the practice of medicine in the two Kansas cities. Dr. Horsey, who is well and favorably known as an able physician and surgeon in addition to his ordinary practice, has determined to give special attention to gynecology and diseases of women and children. His office and residence is 1606 East Tenth street, Kansas City, Mo., and he has Bell-Phone Clifton 3312. Those who know Dr. Horsey's splendid ability will hail with delight the announcement of his resumption of practice of medicine and surgery. He will still continue to pastor Ward Chapel.

ANNUAL APPEARANCE OF THE DUBOIS PLAYERS OF OMAHA

On Thursday evening, June 3, the Dubois Players presented their annual offering to an audience that filled Brandeis Theatre to capacity. A play by these amateur thespians has been an event to Omaha colored folk for the past several years, and the increasing ability of the members of the organization to interpret and present plays that call for real histrionic art. The one presented last Thursday night, "Testing Fire," was a French play with a plot based upon murder, false accusation and the final exposition of the real murderer. Fourteen persons were in the cast, and each contributed to make the whole a pleasing success. Ruth Washington as Adrienne Renaud, Gerald Edwards as Joseph, Cecilia Jewell as Madeline, Jesse Peoples as Raoul, and Edward Turner as Captain Wolf. Each acquitted themselves with credit. J. R. Lemma and Fannie Russell as the Duke and Duchess D'Aubeterre could hardly have been improved upon, both carrying through to the utmost the dignity so characteristic of French royalty. Pearl M. Alexander as Adrienne was a piece of excellent acting. Corinne Thomas and Eva Peoples as Valentine De Mornay and Chantolise of the College Hyeres were well presented and worthy of more than passing notice. John O. Woods as John Renaud and Andrew T. Reed as Count De Mornay demanded the same measure of praise that has always been attendant upon their efforts. Renaud, accused of the murder of his wife, and De Mornay, the real murderer and masquerading as a count, were parts that made heavy demands upon the actors for vocal as well as silent interpretation, and it is to the credit of these two young men that they brought out everything possible to the characters. Cecil Alexander as Dennis O'Rourke furnished the comedy, and real comedy it was. His quaint Irish perceptiveness, awkward walk, sympathetic nature and green handkerchief left an enduring impression upon everyone. Scarcely less worthy of abundant praise were the specialties that filled the interludes between acts. The Harmony Four, Mr. Maceo Williams, violinist; Excelsior Quartet, Mr. Roscoe Miller and Mrs. Lena May-Curry, vocalists. Each number was well rendered and most enthusiastically received.

As a whole, the entertainment was most excellent and it is the earnest desire of the public that the Dubois Players appear more frequently before them. To have filled the largest theatre in Omaha is in itself an earnest of the public that an appearance of this worthy organization will meet with public enthusiasm. The play was given for St. John's A. M. E. Church, of which the Rev. W. C. Williams is pastor, under the very capable management of Mrs. Cecilia Williams-Jewell. The proceeds were $1,012.25.
